

Questions to ask nursery and reception about their books

1. What is this book called?
2. What is the book about?
3. What happens next?
4. Why did that happen?
5. Who read the book with you?
6. Who is the book about?
7. Can you tell me about anyone else in the story?
8. Can you tell me about the illustrations?
9. Do you want to hold the book and turn the pages?
10. Did you like this book?
11. What did you like/dislike about it?

Reception-Red and Blue

Nursery- Blue

When talking with children about their books repeat back their response including more words, to support their language development, for example "slide down" you could respond back "the boy is going down the slide".